

Toronto Electric Model Aviation Club

TEMAC (www.temac.ca) is a club for electric powered radio control model flyers. TEMAC is registered and chartered with the Model Aeronautics Association of Canada (www.maac.ca). TEMAC leases a 3-acre field in Stouffville, Ontario (about a half-hour drive north of central Toronto) where our flying season runs from early spring to late fall. Electric models of all types and sizes are welcome. Members must demonstrate their ability to fly safely in order to fly unsupervised, or are offered free instruction and training to learn how to fly and acquire their pilot's certificate. All members must have MAAC membership/insurance.*

The field is located on the south side of Stouffville Road, approx. 1/2 km. east of Kennedy Road, just east of the Kennedy Road and Stouffville Road intersection. The field includes our parking area, a "pits" area (set up and relax), and runway. There is a large farm/crop surrounding that we can fly over. Efforts to improve the ground conditions continue on an ongoing basis. A frequency board, fences, and signs are posted.

TEMAC is currently accepting new memberships and renewals. Membership is $80 per calendar year ($110 for the first year, which includes a one-time initiation fee of $30 to all new members, to help with field expenses), and includes a one year membership in the EMFSA (Electric Model Flyers Association of Southern Ontario www.emfso.org) The EMFSA produces an informative newsletter, promotes electric flight activities and hosts "Winter Workshop" meetings the second Wednesday of each month (Oct. to May). Junior membership in TEMAC (under 18 years of age) is offered free to the child of a parent who is a member.

New membership: $110.
 Membership renewal: $80.
 Junior membership (under 18): Free -
 - with adult/parent member
